

G-Concerns Newsletter

July 2025

Morocco Awaits Pivotal Family Code Reform

The sensitive act in balancing of social norms with constitutional rights and international obligations...

Read more...

Sierra Leone: Women Pushing for Electoral Reform

As Sierra Leone moves closer to its next elections, renewed focus on women's representation is gaining momentum...

Read more...

Congratulations to CSOs as the Dutch Parliament Passes Motion to Support Their Advocacy

A significant step forward: The Dutch Parliament's recent vote empowers civil society organizations to continue advocating for fundamental rights...

Read more...

Libya: Women Demand Fully Inclusive Peace and Democracy

Electoral process must be meaningfully inclusive. Lasting peace and democracy cannot be built without their full participation...

Read more...

NATO's Military Budget Rise Feared to be Directly Impacting Gender Equality Funding Programs

Critical funding for women's rights and gender equality is falling short...

Read more...

Wishing you a great summer break. The next G-Concerns will be issued in September!

Unsubscribe

Copyright (C) 2024 Gender Concerns International. All rights reserved.

Fluwelen Burgwal 58, 2511 CJ, The Hague
+31 (0) 653965784

Our mailing address is:
info@genderconcerns.org